GRAMMAR

Giving Explanations and Reasons

We use 'in my opinion', 'to me', 'I suppose', 'I guess', 'I believe' to express our ideas on something.

- What do you think about London?
- To me / In my opinion, it is a fascinating city.
- I think / believe / suppose / guess it looks incredible.
- What does she think about Gökçeada?
- In her opinion / To her, it is wonderful.
- She thinks / guesses / supposes / believes the scenery was great.
- What does he think about Istanbul?
- To him / In his opinion, it is a magnificent city.
- He thinks / guesses / supposes / believes the fried fish sandwich was delicious.
- What do they think about rural places?
- They think / guess / suppose / believe villages are more beautiful than cities.
- In their opinion / To them, urban places are more fascinating than rural areas.

There are some rules to make comparisons.

 If the adjective has one syllable add '-er' at the end of the adjective.

big – bigger

small - smaller

short – shorter

nice - nicer

 If the adjective has two syllables and ends in '-y change the end to '-ier'.

lucky - luckier

happy - happier

easy - easier

risky - riskier

 For the other adjectives with two syllables, use 'more / less' before the adjective.

boring – more/less boring

adventurous - more/less adventurous exciting - more/less exciting

amazing – more/less amazing

 When you compare two things, you use 'than'.

To me, paragliding is more exciting than rafting.

I think bungee-jumping is less dangerous than scuba diving.

 Remember that some adjectives are irregular when you make comparisons.

good - better

bad - worse

far – farther / further

much - more

little – less
