SIMPLE PAST TENSE

- We use the simple past tense to talk about completed actions in the past.
- We usually add “-ed” to the end of regular verbs in positive sentences.
Examples: cook – cooked / watch – watched / play – played / walk - walked
- We do not add “-ed” to the end of irregular verbs. They form differently in positive sentences.
- In questions and negative sentences, we use regular verbs and irregular verbs in basic forms.
