Making Comparisons

Affirmative

I	am	shorter	than Alice.
We You They	are
He She It	is

Negative

I	am not	shorter	than Alice.
We You They	aren't
He She It	isn't

Question

Am	I	shorter	than Alice?
Are	we you they
Is	he she it

There are some rules to make comparisons.

- If the adjective has one syllable add '-er' at the end of the adjective.

big – bigger

small – smaller

short – shorter

nice – nicer

- If the adjective has two syllables and ends in '-y' change the end to '-ier'.

lucky – luckier

happy – happier

easy – easier

risky – riskier

- For the other adjectives with two syllables, use 'more / less' before the adjective.

boring – more/less boring

adventurous – more/less adventurous exciting – more/less exciting

amazing – more/less amazing

- When you compare two things, you use 'than'.

To me, paragliding is more exciting than rafting.

I think bungee-jumping is less dangerous than scuba diving.

- Remember that some adjectives are irregular when you make comparisons.

good – better

bad – worse

far – farther / further

much – more

little – less
